COURSE POLICIES:

1. Professionalism

Plagiarism: All assignments you hand in should be the result of your effort only. Academic dishonesty, including any form of cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated and will result in failure of the course and/or formal disciplinary proceedings usually resulting in suspension or dismissal. Cheating includes but is not limited to such acts as; offering or receiving unpermitted assistance in the exams, using any type of unauthorized written material during the exams, handing in any part or all of someone else's work as your own, copying from the Internet. Plagiarism is a specific form of cheating. It means using someone else's work without giving credit. Plagiarism is a literary theft. Therefore, you have to acknowledge the sources you use in your assignments.

Written work: Your assignments are expected to be neat in appearance. Spelling, grammar and syntax are important. All written material must be typed (12 pt) with spacing at one and a half lines. It is therefore of the utmost importance that you proofread your papers before handing them in. ALL OF YOUR ASSIGNMENTS SHOULD BE SUBMITTED BEFORE OR AT THE DUE DATE, THROUGH THE MOODLE SYSTEM AND PRINTED AS WELL. All assignments must be submitted with a cover page which includes; the name of your department, the name of the course with section code, affiliation and name of the instructor, name of the homework, your name, your id number and the date of submission.

Late work: You are supposed to turn in each assignment on time. I will only accept late assignments in unusual circumstances (e.g. documented illness). In all other cases, I will reduce %10 of the total point per day for late work, and the assignment will not be accepted after three days late.

Tentative course outline & class schedule: This syllabus and accompanying class schedule is subject to change without advance notice. The intent of the course schedule is to give students a general idea what/when material is covered in class. Due to the nature of the course and group projects, some issues can affect the course schedule resulting in some changes. This is yet another reason why regular attendance at the class is critical.

Announcements: All announcements will be sent to your e-mail address. It is your responsibility to keep your e-mail address operative all times. Check your e-mails regularly in order to be informed.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

2. Parent Involvement Activity Guideline (30%)

For this assignment you are required to create an attractive guideline for ECE teachers which includes the parent involvement strategies and icebreakers that you will design for the parents of a particular age group (as a group max 3-4).

- At first, 5 icebreaker activities (each 2 points) you will design in your guideline for parents and teachers by considering parent-teacher meetings.
- Moreover, for your guideline you need to design an parent involvement activity for a designated age group and describe what kind of a parent involvement strategy you will apply. In your guideline you need to include all kinds of parent involvement strategies that we will discuss in class (types of one way communications, two way communications etc, at least 10 activities).
- Each of your activities are 2 points. Detailed information and the rubric of the assignment will be provided.

3. Presentation of the Project (10%)

After you submit the “Parent Involvement Activity Guideline”, you will present your guideline at class. You are expected to answer the questions that will come from your classmates and your instructor. Also you will apply one of the icebreaker activity during your presentation. The presentation must be clear and appropriate enough to understand. Further, your presentation should be submitted through the Moodle system and printed as well.

3. Midterm Exam (30%)

In-class midterm exam will be given in class in response to questions that come directly from class experiences, discussions of guest speakers and readings assigned to each week. Midterm exam will likely to include multiple choice, short answer, matching, and essay questions, and open-ended questions.

4. Final Exam (30%)

In-class midterm exam will be given in class in response to questions that come directly from class experiences, discussions of guest speakers and readings assigned to each week. The format of final exam will be determined later during the semester.
